1. Narrative description of the Proposition 28 arts education programs funded (2500 character limit).

   Thermalito Union Elementary School District used Proposition 28 Arts and Music in Schools (AMS) funds to supplement arts and music education for students across the District. In 2025–26, AMS funds supported 2.4 FTE certificated arts teachers who provided instruction for preschool through fifth-grade students. These teachers increased student access to arts and music education at the elementary level.At Nelson Avenue Middle School, AMS funds supplemented existing band and arts programs through additional materials, supplies, and field trips.The District also used AMS funds for arts-related materials and supplies needed to support instruction. This general program—certificated arts and music instruction for preschool through fifth grade, together with supplemental support for middle school band and arts programs—is expected to continue in substantially the same form. These activities were supported with AMS allocations from 2023–24, 2024–25, and 2025–26.
